From: • Alexander Holtzman

Subject: • Testimony before Senate Consumer
Subcommittee on "Little Cigars"

Attached for your information are statements made on behalf of R.J. Reynolds, Consolidated Cigar, and General Cigar at the hearings of the Consumer Subcommittee on February 3 on the subject of "little cigars."

As you will see, Consolidated Cigar and General Cigar both argue strongly for making a distinction between cigars and cigarettes on a health basis.

Also attached are the statements of Donald Tiggelbeck of Pittsburgh Activated Carbon and Constantine Stephano of Stephano Brothers which were also delivered at the hearing on February 3.
